

Yes, I'd like to come along to Wildlife Queensland in your Community

Name _____

Address _____

_____ P/C _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Saturday 12 September 1.30pm [tick your choice]

- Working with Wildlife in Redlands. Delve into Council-run wildlife programs like Land for Wildlife. Presented by Redlands City Council

OR

- Wildlife Photography—tips and ideas. Wildlife photography hints from a master. Presented by Robert Ashdown. (limited places)

Saturday 12 September 3.15pm [tick your choice]

- Where are the koalas? The latest koala research and survey results. Presented by Deidre de Villiers, koala researcher

OR

- Making a conservation difference. Caring for Country and its conservation programs . Presented by SEQ Catchments

OR

- Down by the Bay. Field trip to MangroveWatch and Seagrass-Watch activity sites. (limited places/ car pooling)

Sunday 13 September—times vary [tick your choice]

- Wildlife Queensland out in the bush. Field trip and guided walking tour of local bushland with Simon Baltais, State President of Wildlife Queensland. Meet 8.30am

OR

- Bush Tucker. Don't want to walk too far or too early? Take a guided bush tucker stroll around Indigiscapes' gardens. Meet 10.15am

All workshops are free but bookings are essential

Book by 4 September 2009.

Wildlife Preservation Society of Queensland

95 William Street, Brisbane QLD 4000

Information and bookings, go to www.wildlife.org.au/diary

Wildlife Queensland in your Community

join Wildlife Queensland for a weekend of wildlife

Where?

Indigiscapes Centre, Runnymede Road,
Capalaba.

When?

Saturday 12 September 2009

1pm–5 pm

Sunday 13 September

8.30am–12 noon

Who?

Wildlife Queensland invites you to take part in the Wildlife Queensland in your Community program for 2009—a weekend of workshops, walks and wildlife guest speakers.

Find out more: Visit our website at www.wildlife.org.au/diary

Bookings essential. Some workshops have limited places.

Wildlife Queensland in your Community
it's for you.

Turn over for program and booking details.

Wildlife Queensland's projects and campaigns help protect wildlife, build community capacity, and enhance habitat.